

Celebration of International Women's Day

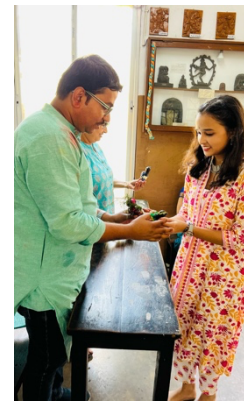

Students of semester-VI organized a special celebration of Women's Day on 12.03.2025. All the faculty members including morning section joined the celebration to encourage the students. They welcomed the teachers with flowers and hand-made gifts. They decorated their seminar room very tastefully and organized a simple yet vibrant cultural programme. It contained recitation, vocal as well as dance recitals. Theme of the programme was to celebrate womanhood in all its glory. All the faculty members spoke on the occasion and emphasized the importance of understanding their rights as well as responsibilities. Principal madam graced the occasion and put emphasis on economic independence as the major enabler of a woman. The message of the entire celebration was to create an inclusive society where both men and women can thrive.

Simple yet significant decoration

Welcoming the principal and the teachers with hand-made gifts

Cultural programme

