

Release of Wall Magazine "Angana" by the Department of Bengali, VIC

On April 17, 2025, the Bengali Department of Victoria Institution College unveiled its wall magazine "Angana" (Spring issue). The magazine was displayed outside the department's seminar room (Room No. 18). This initiative was led by 2nd and 6th-semester students.

The inauguration ceremony was brief and elegant, with the college principal, Dr. Maitreyi Roy Kanjilal, unveiling the magazine by cutting the ribbon. Students and faculty members of the department attended the event.

By combining themes of Bengali New Year and Eid celebrations, the wall magazine "Angana" showcased the creative potential of the Bengali department, highlighting a promising aspect of the students' talent.
