

Celebration of International Mother Language Day by Bengali Department

The Department of Bengali of Victoria Institution College, in collaboration with IQAC, celebrated International Mother Language Day on Saturday, 21st February 2026, at 12 noon in the Suniti Sabhagriha. In her welcome address, the Principal, Dr. Maitreyee Ray Kanjilal, highlighted the essence of the programme. The students of the Bengali Department presented a touching cultural performance titled “বাংলা প্রাণের সুর” (The Melody of the Bengali Soul). On this occasion, a seminar was also organized. Dr. Jyotsna Chattopadhyay, Professor of Bengali from Rabindra Bharati University, delivered a thought-provoking lecture that captivated both students and faculty members. The topic of her lecture was: “ঈশ্বরচন্দ্র বিদ্যাসাগর: বেতাল পঞ্চবিংশতি ও বাংলা গদ্যের নির্মাণ”. Overall, the day remained highly significant and memorable.

Principal Dr. Maitreyi Ray Kanjilal with the speaker Dr. Jyotsna Chattopadhyay

Cultural performance by students of Bengali department

A group photograph

Dr. Jyotsna Chattopadhyay with the faculties and students of Bengali department

