(Fortnight Celebration)

Day 3 (Essay Writing Competition)

27th June 2026

As part of the ongoing Fortnight Celebration dedicated to the revered memory of Dr Syama Prasad Mookerjee (spanning from 23rd June to 6th July 2026), IQAC of Victoria Institution (College) successfully organised an engaging event on 27th June 2026 (Day 3).

The day featured a highly competitive and thought-provoking Essay Writing Competition, which was seamlessly conducted by the Department of Political Science. The competition drew enthusiastic participation from twenty students across various streams, each showcasing their analytical depth and writing prowess.

The core objective of the event was to encourage students to critically evaluate regional history. Accordingly, the designated topic for the essay was "Contribution of Dr Syama Prasad Mookerjee in the Creation of West Bengal and Bengali Identity." Participating students explored Dr Mookerjee's monumental role during the tumultuous phase of India's partition, highlighting his political foresight, his efforts to safeguard the rights of the Bengali community, and his lasting impact in shaping the modern geopolitical and cultural identity of West Bengal.
