

The Heritage Club of Victoria Institution (College) paid a respectful tribute to Keshub Chandra Sen, founder of the College, on his 187th birth anniversary. The programme was attended by the Principal, teachers, students, members of Alumni Association and non-teaching staff. After offering formal obeisance to his memory, Prof. Nandan Saha shared his reflections on Sen's life, times, and his pioneering contributions to social reform and the emancipation of women.

In the evening, students visited Lily Cottage, where objects from Sen's daily life were specially exhibited. Students and the Principal of Victoria Institution College also participated in the commemorative initiative of the Bharatborshioyo Brahma Samaj, in the evening.

Heritage Club is thankful to Principal, students, teachers and non-teaching staff for supporting us with their valuable presence.

